Third Certified Senior Advisor Certification Achieved To Help Better Serve Seniors

Northeast Indiana, January 16, 2015– Denise Lochner, Personal Organizer of Dorian Maples & Associates, has achieved the Certified Senior Advisor (CSA)® certification. As a CSA, Denise will serve her clients with added benefit of regular training in dealing with the aging process of those 55 or older. The five key areas of the CSA curriculum are aspects of social, health, financial, legal, government assistance, and ethical communication that seniors face today.

Denise passed the CSA designation exam in December 2014.

Denise is a resident of DeKalb County. She serves nine northeast Indiana counties as Personal Organizer of Dorian Maples & Associates.

Society of Certified Senior Advisors was founded in 1997. In order to learn more visit their web site at www.csa.us.

Dorian Maples & Associates, locally owned and operated provide professional geriatric care management in nine counties of northeast Indiana since 2003. We work with clients, their families, and/or guardians to make decisions about living arrangements, coordinate services, and provide ongoing support around the various challenges associated with aging, bringing peace of mind to you and your family.
